Lake Highland Preparatory School teamed up with UCF’s Go Baby Go! — a program that designs low-tech and affordable solutions for toddlers with disabilities to gain independence — to fundraise and modify ride-on toy cars for local children with mobility impairments. More than 90 volunteers — including Lake Highland Prep and UCF students — modified five toy cars for local toddlers, who were on-site with their families to receive the cars at the event.